We are very excited to be bringing back the Miss Mancelona Program, AGAIN! While the whole process – from the thought process of filling out the application, through the workshops and pageant– is an exciting time, a pageant also teaches girls many life lessons. The relationships these young ladies make throughout their journeys will last a lifetime. A pageant is much more than a show! By applying to participate in the Miss Mancelona Program, you are agreeing to be committed to all rehearsal dates as well as fulfill the responsibilities if you win.

Before committing to this experience please review details and dates to make sure you can be fully committed to the program:
